

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF WELLSBORO

Greetings from the big church on the corner! The United Methodist Church invites you to Sunday service at 10:30, with Sunday School at 9:00.

On Sunday, September 29, the Bell Choir played "Let There Be Peace on Earth," directed by Louise Borneman. At the end of the service, she received flowers and a gift from the church, presented to her by SPRC committee member Linda Grogan. The scripture, John 1:35-51, was read by Jean Dutchess. Pastor Jackson's message was, "How can we be the church through our witness?"

Maureen Johnston, Cathy Mack and James Nichols shared their testimony as to how their faith enables them to witness in many ways. Church members then orally reaffirmed their Methodist Covenant to support the church with their prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness. Ushers were Ed Wilson, Sam Erdo, Bruce Davis and Terry Borneman. Fellowship refreshments were provided by Marie Weaver and Trudi Dibble. Next Sunday, October 6, Marie and Trudi will host the October Fellowship Dinner after church in Epworth hall. Everyone should bring a dish to share and their own table service. After dinner, we will gather to prepare boxes for Operation Christmas Child.

On Wednesday, October 2, the District Charge Conference will be held in the sanctuary at 6:00. All members are invited to attend, as this meeting gives information about District happenings and affords the chance to vote.

United Women in Faith Annual Day is Saturday, October 5, in Roseville from 9:30 to 3:00. Those registered will carpool from the church at 8:30.

Birthdays this week were celebrated by Annette Janeski, Lynne Smith and Madeline Dunham. Have a blessed week!
