

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF WELLSBORO

YOU'RE INVITED – to Sunday service at the United Methodist Church for Sunday service at 10:30, with Sunday School at 9:00. On Sunday, October 13, Terry Borneman read the scripture, Luke 12:13-34. The Praise Team led the singing of several songs, including, "Oh Come to the Altar." Pastor Jackson's message was entitled, "How can I get close to God through simplicity?" with several suggestions of ways to do so. The Loose Change Offering was collected by Todd Crumb, Tom Auman, Terry Borneman, and Bob Smith and will be donated to the Wellsboro Food Pantry. Ushers were Cathy Mack, Ed Wilson, Les Mengel, and Jim Paxson. Fellowship refreshments were provided by Linda Grogan and Cheryl Seely.

On Thursday, October 10, Pat Newruck, Marie Weaver, Sam Erdo and Sydna Shabloski went to The Hub in Elkland and assembled 125 Health Kits, while other volunteers packed cleaning buckets for flood victims.

United Women in Faith met on Saturday, October 12. Officers for 2025 were elected and include: President-Cheryl Seely; Vice Pres. – Amy Goehring; Secretary - Amy Nichols; Treasurer- Karen Blackwell. There was discussion of donations to be made to various deserving organizations, including a $500 pledge to Missions of the Northern Wilds UWF. Plans were made for the UWF Dickens

Sales Table and Christmas Cookie Sale. Dates were set for a Spring Rummage Sale in April and Salad Sale dates for April and May 2025.

Tioga County Homeless Initiative will hold an Open House on Saturday, October 19, from 10:00 to 3:00, and everyone is invited.

Birthdays were celebrated this week by Les Mengel, Glenna Blair, Wes Wood, Terry Borneman, and Brenda Coder. John and Debbie Scudder observed their anniversary on October 9.

Have a blessed week!