

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF WELLSBORO

The United Methodist Church invites you to Sunday service at 10:30, with Sunday School at 9:00. On Sunday, February 2, the Praise Team opened the service with, "Build Your Kingdom Here." Loretta "Sam" Erdo gave a short financial report on the resources and expenses of the church. The Senior Choir's anthem was, "Break the Bread," as it was Communion Sunday. Diane Colton read the scripture, 1 Corinthians 12:4-11 and Galatians 6:4-5. Pastor Jackson's message, "Stay in Your Lane," stressed using our God-given gifts in the best way possible. Ushers were Craig Fields, Larry Snyder, Ed Wilson, and Keith and Amy Goehring, with the help of Callie Jackson. Trudi Dibble and Marie Weaver provided Fellowship refreshments, including a "Happy Ground Hog Day" cake.

The three glass-fronted bulletin boards in the back hall have been updated with new posters. The Bell Choir, The Hub in Elkland and the Scouts, who meet in the church, are all highlighted with attractive hand-made posters. Other groups in the church are encouraged to make a poster to display the ministries and activities of the church.

The United Women of Faith met on Saturday, February 1, in the Adult Sunday School Room at 11:00. They put together Friendship bags containing all kinds of items relating to Friendship, which were to be given out later to their friends in church or the community.

Birthdays were celebrated this week by Nathan Lawton, Jacob Patterson and Sheila Fields. Ann and Angelo Serva and Walt and Diane Colton observed their anniversaries.

Have a blessed week!
